

In Forest School we worked in groups and used natural materials to make a human body. Then we had to label the different parts of our body.

In Forest School we worked in groups and used natural materials to make a human body. Then we had to label the different parts of our body

In Forest School we worked in groups and used natural materials to make a human body. Then we had to label the different parts of our body.

In Forest School we worked in groups and used natural materials to make a human body. Then we had to label the different parts of our body.

In Forest School we worked in groups and used natural materials to make a human body. Then we had to label the different parts of our body.

